

Surf The Wave is an ambitious three year programme to support the touring and showcasing of dance in the UK. It is a UK-wide programme led by Pavilion Dance South West (PDSW) in Bournemouth. We are looking for enthusiastic and hard-working individuals to work with us to make this an incredibly positive experience for artists, companies and promoters and audiences.

To enhance our great team we are looking for a Showcase Coordinator - £18,000 p.a. (pro rata)

This is a fixed term, full time post to 28th June, 2019.

A full description of this role, and that of Project Administrator is available on our website, where application details are also outlined. Please check them out and have a chat with us if you're interested. We look forward to hearing from you.

Deadline for applications: 9.00am, Tuesday 11th September, 2018

Interviews will be held on 18th September in Bournemouth.

PDSW is committed to open and diverse recruitment and positively encourages applications from suitably skilled people regardless of sex, race, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, religion or belief or marital status.

Website: <http://www.pdsw.org.uk/about-us/work-with-us/vacancies/>

With grateful thanks for their support to : Arts Council England, Esmée Fairbairn Foundation, Jerwood Charitable Foundation, Arts Council Wales and Creative Scotland.

Supported by
ARTS COUNCIL ENGLAND

bhlive